

Frequently Asked Questions - Building

When do I need to obtain a building permit?

Building permits serve as formal and legal permission for homeowners and contractors to start any residential or commercial construction projects. The issuance of a building permit indicates that applications and plans for new construction, remodels, renovations, additions, electrical services, plumbing services and other types of construction-related projects have been approved by local government officials and that the plans comply with mandated building codes and zoning laws.

Web Links

Building Permit Application

Source URL (retrieved on 2014-09-03 04:40): <http://exeternh.gov/building/frequently-asked-questions-building>